

PAT
Certificate of Conformity

Portable Appliance Testing (usually referred to as PAT Testing) is a process by which electrical appliances are checked to see if they are safe.

This document certifies that the equipment below is fit for purpose and belongs to:

NAME:

ADDRESS 1:

ADDRESS 2:

TOWN/CITY:

COUNTY:

POST CODE:

1. Amplifier

2. Effects Unit

3. Sundry leads & attachments.....

With regard to safety issues of electric shock, fire and burns the equipment has been checked for security of casing, connecting lead, the plug and fuse.

All items passed general tests as shown below:

- ✓ Secure wiring
- ✓ Correct fuses where appropriate
- ✓ Good working order and condition

Passed Electrical Test label has been applied to the equipment.

DATE OF TEST:

RETEST DUE:

SIGNED:

Source of this document via www.houlston.freeseve.co.uk